Talk about what you watch with your child. Have you done any of the things that Toby has done to prepare for Easter? Have you seen any baby animals, see if your child can remember the names of the young animals? Have you seen any spring flowers in the garden? Talk about their names and colours.

Get Creative...

Design an Easter egg picture

Cut out some egg shapes from paper and ask your child to decorate it. The patterns we use for mark making are zigzag patterns, wave patterns, horizontal lines, vertical lines and circles.

Make a model

Can your child use things out of the recycling bin to make a model? First, your child could plan their model? Next, build the model. Then, tell a grown up why they chose to use the materials they have. Can your child write about or label their model?

Decorate an egg

Make a hard-boiled egg and allow it to cool down. Ask your child to decorate it using coloured pens. Use a slide or create a ramp with a large box propped against a chair. Whose egg rolls the furthest?

Create an Easter egg hunt

Can your child help you to think of some clues for the Easter egg hunt? Can they write the instructions for the rest of the family?

Get connected...

During this uncertain time, technology is a great way to communicate with those people you miss. Can your child send a video message to somebody? It could be to us, a friend or a family member.

Get talking

The best thing about being at home is all those lovely conversations! Taking time as a family to talk is really important in supporting your child's communication skills. We encourage talk and language in class by asking lots of questions:

"I wonder what would happen if...?"

"Can you remember when...?"

"What does that feel like/ smell like/ look like/ taste like?"

"Why did you do it that way...?"

"How could you change it...?"

You could use these conversation starters too...
